CIVIL ACTION NO. 7:16-CV-00498

ORDER

The Court now considers Allstate Texas Lloyds' ("Defendant") motion to dismiss for want of prosecution,¹ as well as the upcoming status conference currently scheduled for May 30, 2017.² The Court observes that Defendant's motion is technically opposed,³ and does not become ripe until May 30, 2017,⁴ the same day as the currently-scheduled status conference. Because Defendant's dismissal motion is potentially dispositive, and could vitiate the need for the status conference, the Court CONTINUES the conference as scheduled to Tuesday, June 13, 2017 at 9:00 A.M.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DONE at McAllen, Texas, this 11th day of May, 2017.

Micaela Alvarez
United States District Judge¹ Dkt. No. 24.² Dkt. No. 22.³ See LR 7.2 of the Local Rules of the United States District for the Southern District of Texas (providing that "motions without opposition must bear in their caption 'unopposed.'") (emphasis added). Here, there is no such caption, and Plaintiffs have not indicated they are unopposed. Thus, the motion is opposed by default.⁴ See LR 7.3 of the Local Rules of the United States District for the Southern District of Texas (providing that motions become ripe twenty-one days after they are filed). Here, the motion was filed on May 9, 2017, and twenty-one days from this date is May 30, 2017.
